My parents live in Los Angeles, can I waive the provided Berklee housing?

The Los Angeles Internship Program integrates academics and experiential learning through internship participation, workshop attendance, and the Berklee community through living in the same housing complex in order to promote career development and personal growth. Living together at the Park LaBrea apartment complex as a cohort of students provides a safe and comfortable living/learning community that supports educational, emotional, and social development/growth. We require all students that participate in this program to live in the apartment assigned by Berklee College of Music at Park LaBrea.

However, if you have a parent/guardian that lives in Los Angeles county, are aged 24 or older, or have a disability which requires accommodations that Park LaBrea is not able to provide than you may petition to have the housing requirement waived. Please see the Office of Experiential Learning for more information and to pick up a Housing Petition form.

All Berklee housing in Los Angeles will be in same-gender, non-smoking apartments in Park LaBrea. Park LaBrea is centrally located in West Hollywood, close to many internship sites and shopping. Park LaBrea is a gated community. The apartments are furnished and come equipped with a full Housewares Package. Check out Park LaBrea's website at www.parklabrea.com.

Will I need a car while in Los Angeles?

Yes, probably. There is some public transportation, but it is not very reliable. Most people in Los Angeles have cars. Some people may choose to drive their cars across country, ship their cars to Los Angeles, or rent a car there for the semester. Both Avis and Enterprise Rent-A-Car offer a special discount rate to Berklee students participating in the LA Internship Program.

If I participate in this program, am I guaranteed full-time employment after my internship?

Internships provide both important learning and networking opportunities for students. While the primary objective for any internship is a learning experience, approximately 30% - 40% of our interns in the past have reported being offered a job or another internship at the company where they interned.

Do programs like this exist in other cities?

Berklee's Office of Experiential Learning also facilitates a Summer Internship Program in London. Additionally, you may participate in the major specific internship (XX-495) in any city of your choice. See the Office of Experiential Learning for more details.
