

Berklee Writing and Composition Scholarship Application Form

The Berklee Writing and Composition Scholarship is available for applicants to the college who wish to have their music-writing abilities taken into consideration for scholarship, in addition to their participation in the live audition and interview process.

This application must be accompanied by a CD featuring at least three original compositions as well as written scores for each composition. Please refer to the Composition Recording Guidelines on the website for detailed instructions on how to prepare your recording.

Please ensure that your recording, scores, and application for the Berklee Writing and Composition Scholarship are postmarked by the deadline. This will ensure sufficient time for an evaluation of your material.
