Constitution of AMS Club

Article I—Organization Name
The name of this organization shall be AMS. The organization may also refer to itself as Real Talk.

Article II—Mission and Goals
Section 1: Mission
By constructing an atmosphere where students can peacefully express their thoughts, feelings, and perspectives in a creative and artistic manner, student peers will be able to view another artist's position on faith through the art they create.

Section 2: Goals
AMS uses the Bible and artistic expression to inspire students to have strong faith, use their talents, and excel in their academics. This is done through our “Real Talk” and “Reality Check” meetings that give students a venue to perform their art and discuss faith. This club essentially upholds the definition of ‘art’ in these meetings: “the quality, production, expression, or realm, according to aesthetic principles, of what is beautiful, appealing, or of more than ordinary significance” (dictionary.com).

AMS employs a creative atmosphere where any aspiring student can hone their artistic talent and contribute to the creative arts community. Everyone has an artist growing within them: by providing various professional artists from a variety of artistic backgrounds, an aspiring artist can discover their artistic talent and grow while being supported by their student peers.

AMS honors the fact that God has given these talents to everyone. By providing the opportunity for growth and development for all students from any religious background, an aspiring artist can honor God’s gifts to them by contributing their artistic perspective about various faith topics. Reality realizes that there are a multitude of Abrahamic faiths which can contribute and grow together learning from one another in a creative artistic environment.
