The catalog page describes the requirements for a Music Business/Management and Songwriting degree. The page contains a table detailing course requirements across various semesters, including core and elective courses. The table also covers credit hours required for different concentrations and electives. The page includes notes on how to meet prerequisites and course requirements, and notes on specific course details such as course codes and titles.